Peace Officers Research Association of California Endorse Anamarie Avila Farias for State Assembly District 15

Anamarie Avila Farias, candidate for California State Assembly District 15 seat, received the sole endorsement of the Peace Officers Research Association of California (PORAC). PORAC represents over 80,000 public safety members and over 950 associations, making it the largest law enforcement organization in California and the largest state law enforcement organization in the nation.

“Contra Costa County and Assembly District 15 deserve a representative who is focused on public safety,” stated PORAC President, Brian Marvel. “Anamarie has our support because we know she is focused on addressing California’s public safety challenges, providing pragmatic solutions and bringing respect for the law enforcement profession back into the community.”

“Ensuring that the people of Assembly District 15 are safe will always be my highest priority,” said Anamarie Avila Farias. “As an Assemblymember, I look forward to working with PORAC to make sure their officers and their families get the support they need from the State of California. I am humbled and incredibly grateful to have the support of PORAC and their 80,000 members in my race for State Assembly.”

With crime on the rise, California’s state legislators need to work together to pass police reform measures and modernize law enforcement – but funding is required to make change. Anamarie shares PORAC’s goal of increasing resources for local law enforcement departments so that officers have the tools they need to address this crisis safely and effectively.
